

Nepali earthquake relief film festival fundraiser:

Come and support Nepal in its time of need by watching Nepali films this weekend at artFix London – 27 Peter Street, Soho

In the wake of the tragic earthquakes in Nepal which have killed more than 7,500 people and injured more than 14,500, artFix London has decided to put on a Nepali film festival from Friday the 15th to Sunday the 17th of this month. All proceeds will go to helping the relief effort.

ArtFix has been in contact with the Nepali embassy and they recommended that the funds should go to the 'Prime Minister Disaster Relief Fund'.

On the line up are some great feature length as well as short films from Nepal. Here is a quick taster, you can find the synopses of each on the Facebook page:
